SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

“BROOKLYN SOCIETY

For the Relief of Aged, Indigent Females.”

The proceedings of the Board of Managers for this Society, so deeply interesting to themselves, also belong of right to the public.

A charity so nobly sustained by public contributions and individual energy, must have strong grounds to claim a hearing, amid the many echoes from the temples of man's benevolence.

Six years ago, was planted in the hearts of a few individuals in the city of Brooklyn, a seed of hope, that the indigent and neglected aged females in their midst, might be provided with a home for their latter, helpless days, wherein to resign their humbled spirits to the Father of all; and to receive from the ministration of sympathising strangers the care that was denied them from the outer world.

Six years ago, lived a man whom God had prospered abundantly, and to him also was given that love and faith which quickeneth the good seed, and he made their hopes glad with timely nourishment and care, until the plant grew in loveliness, and now blooms in its strength, a living glory to his munificence and memory. We know not his name in heaven now, but in our hearts it is written in indelible characters—JOHN B. GRAHAM.

Up to the past twelve months, the public, our generous benefactors and friends, have been duly apprised of our proceedings, hopes and fears.

Since the last report given, the Institution has gone on prosperously, notwithstanding its hard struggle to surmount the pecuniary difficulties it labored under. By the blessing of Divine Providence, like some faithful bark upon the raging waters, it has nobly rode out the storm, and though dismasted, not disabled, for Faith still was at the helm, and brought it safely through the troubled sea of doubt and difficulty.

Almost dismayed at finding the last paid bill had drained the finances to the merest pittance, the Managers made one more urgent appeal to the generous public, when Heaven sent to them friends unexpected as most welcome.

At the donation party in December last, among the many liberal donations made upon that occasion, which so much cheered and revived their hearts, Mr. James A. H. Bell gave to the Society for the liquidation of the mortgage $1000; Mr. Jno. T. Martin, of Brooklyn, handed the Secretary, Mrs. G. L. Cornell, a check for $500, to be used as a sinking fund for the Institution; Mr. Chas. J. Smith, of Ryerson Place, Brooklyn, presented through the Rev. Dr. Farley, a deed of a lot of land in Jersey City, valued at $1200; and their kind benefactor and friend, Mr. C. W. Moore, also of Brooklyn, exerted himself most strenuously and successfully, in giving to the public two Concerts, of great scientific merit, and the proceeds, without reserve, amounting to $1,426.25 he gave "for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home."

Such instances of true benevolence, stand as land marks on life's pathway to the gates of heaven.

These gifts, large and valuable as they are, with the exception of the two Concerts, are not for the support or annual expenses of the Institution, but for specified purposes for its future benefit—therefore the amount in the Treasurer's report left for "annual expenses," will be found to be small indeed. The Society have reason to thank God for his great blessings upon their efforts to sustain this charity, so peculiarly resting as it does, upon the more refined sympathies of man's nature; and they acknowledge, with deep gratitude, the donations of the past year, and apologize, if necessary, to the few specially named, for making their good deeds known; but the Managers could not forbear to show how much their own continuance in well doing has been dependant upon such timely and substantial aid. Upon such, and such as they are, do they rest their faith for the future support of these aged, wearied pilgrims, to another world.

The funds in the treasury are fearfully low, but we rejoice in the independence we have gained over the debt that oppressed us, and firmly rely upon the kindness and generosity of those who have heretofore lent us a helping hand, and thus "laid up their treasures in heaven"—as well as to those who have more recently felt within their souls a religious responsibility to give according to the means given unto them.

We ask, in the name of Him who gave you your all, as a loan, not as a gift, a small portion of your abundance; feeling assured that when the world seems as nothing, and the portals of the grave have closed over you, you will gain your treasure back again tenfold, in the kingdom of "the just made perfect." Aid us to guide and keep from the cold blasts of earth, and still colder blasts of friendlessness, those who have been daughters, sisters, mothers, like yourselves, and help us to smooth the furrowed brow of age by the blessed light of your cheering sympathies. Oh, how much more precious than gold is the kind word, kindly spoken—thus when the snows of time fall thick upon you, will the sun-light of beaming reminiscence warm you with its bright promises.

Mrs. Ann Cummings, died Jan. 4th, 1856, aged 86 years.

Mrs. Catherine Shine, " March 22d, " " 66 "

Constant applications are being made for admission, and many worthy and excellent females no doubt, are necessarily rejected owing to the stringent laws of our Constitution and rules for admission—a constant vigilance over our sympathies being necessary, to keep within the letter of its laws.

We feel it a duty to allude to this fact, as some have expressed dissatisfaction that their peculiar claims, or friends, had not been admitted.

In no one case has an applicant been refused admission, unless falling under or proscribed by some one of these rules.

The continued good health of the inmates, and the small number that have been taken away by death, considering their advanced life, speak loudly in praise of the locality of the Institution, as well as for its sanitary management.

It would be unjust to pass by without comment, the remarkable cleanliness and order of the establishment, as well as the general expression of satisfaction and content, made voluntarily by the “old ladies;” all of which reflects so much credit upon the excellent and judicious Matron, Mrs. Caroline Wright, under whose jurisdiction the whole domestic arrangements are so admirably conducted.

Morning and evening lessons from the Scriptures are read by the Matron, or some of the chosen inmates, and the order and cheerfulness of a well systematised family circle is manifest in their every day life.

The pulpit has been supplied every Sabbath with but few exceptions (which were omissions beyond the control of the pulpit committee) during the past year, representing nearly, if not all denominations of Christians in the community, thus carrying out Mr. Graham’s special injunction, that “it should not be made a sectarian Institution.”

The Managers earnestly invite all those interested in the charities now existing in the city for the relief of suffering humanity in all its grades, to visit and inspect “The Home,” better known as the “Graham Institution,” founded and intended to meet the wants of a class, whose previous life of rectitude and prosperity, makes more poignant the distress of comfortless old age.

They desire particularly that the public should see and know how far they have fulfilled the obligations they have assumed, and also to witness the pleasant results growing from its own bounties. They feel confident to say that the happiness and health of the inmates are ever most scrupulously attended to, and are always held questions of the first moment over any other of pecuniary consideration.

The Visiting Committee are constantly in attendance, so that any delinquency, if such should occur, would be instantly remedied.

The food provided is of the best quality, nutritious and suited to the demands of declining nature, neatly and well served.

The library furnishes abundant reading for any who may desire its advantages; and the volumes selected for it are such as Christians of any denomination might be comforted and instructed by their perusal.

It could not be expected, that among so many as are here thrown together from various quarters, that some discordant elements should not manifest themselves, but by mild yet firm reasoning, the Board have been able to meet these difficulties, and restore harmony and good will between those concerned; or where complaints are made as to any fancied or real want, an investigation immediately places the matter upon its true merit, therefore the old ladies feel that the Managers are really their strength and support, as well as friends and sisters in the great family of creation.

No exertion or care on the part of the present Managers will be spared to carry out the original intention of those who first founded the Society, whilst the warmest sympathy in behalf of the recipients of its bounties and protection, will ever be the characteristic impulse to their labors.

With such feelings do they rely upon a continuance of the confidence of a community so ready and willing to aid the good works of Faith, Hope and Charity.

The Board would respectfully tender their thanks to the Clergy of Brooklyn, for their kindness to them and to their sacred charge, under all circumstances when called upon ; and to those especially who have so cheerfully supplied the pulpit, with no little inconvenience to themselves.

They also express their unfeigned thanks to Dr. Vanderveer, for his professional services, gratuitously and willingly rendered to the inmates during the past two years.

Most cordially do they thank the gentlemen composing the Advisory Committee, for their deep interest and valuable advice and instruction, in matters of moment whenever brought before them ; and may they ever continue to feel the true spirit of brotherly love in their hearts for all of God's children, whether of high estate or low estate, that acknowledge with themselves, the supremacy of His divine law of love "in all and through all."

Corresponding Sec'y.

TO THE DONATORS
FOR REMOVING THE MORTGAGE UPON "THE HOME, OR GRAHAM INSTITUTION."

Brooklyn, November 25, 1856.

The Managers of "The Brooklyn Society for the Relief of Respectable, Aged, Indigent Females," avail themselves of this opportunity to express their unanimous thanks to those who so promptly and generously responded to their call for aid, to remove the mortgage resting upon the "Home;" their donations for this purpose being independent of the annual subscriptions for the support of the Institution.

The Report for 1855 being then printed, rendered it impossible to manifest the vote of the Board as they could wish, before this period.

By order of the Board,
A. R. ST. JOHN,
Corresponding Sec'y.

Furniture and other articles brought into the Asylum are to remain for the benefit of the Institution.

The age of persons relieved or admitted into the Asylum must not be under sixty years, unless strongly recommended by necessitous circumstances, in which the Committee shall have discretionary power.

No individuals need apply for admittance except they have been residents of Brooklyn or Williamsburgh at least seven years previous to application.

The Board shall have discretionary power to remove any pensioner from the Home to the Insane Hospital, who manifests signs of insanity.

Persons may be admitted as boarders, (but not to the exclusion of those who are entirely dependent,) provided they submit to the rules and regulations of the Institution, and give satisfactory security for the regular payment of their board, and that their funeral expenses will be defrayed.

Persons who wish to enter the Institution can confer with the Application Committee, at the house of Mrs. JAMES SHELDON, 86 Pierrepont-street, on the first Wednesday after each monthly meeting. The Committee will meet at 11 o'clock, A. M., precisely, and continue in session one hour.

B O N D .

The subscribers having been received as inmates of the Home, do hereby agree to the rules and regulations of the House, as adopted by the Managers. And in consideration of the care and attention of the Managers, and the expenses of the Establishment, we do hereby severally make over to the Association all such utensils, beds, bedding and household stuffs and furniture, as we have brought or shall bring to the Home for our use, to the end that the quiet and comfort of the House may not be disturbed in the event of our removal or death, but that all things may remain for our successors. And, whereas, we have been reduced in the course of Divine Providence to a state of dependance ; but the same kind Providence may hereafter bless us with the accession of property, so as to enable us to retire from this Home, and possibly to become contributors to it, we and each of us do further hereby appoint the Chairman of the Advisory Committee of said Society for the time being, our Attorney and Trustee, to receive for us respectively, and to sell and dispose of all estates, real and personal, of every description, to which we shall hereafter, or may be now entitled.

And we do hereby assign the said estates, and empower the said Chairman, and his successors in office accordingly, to the end that the Association may be reimbursed for the support and supplies that shall have been furnished to us respectively, as far as such estates may extend, and the balance to be accounted for to us or our legal representatives.

Witness our hands and seals, the day and year set opposite to our names respectively.

DUTIES OF THE MANAGERS.

The First Directress shall preside at the meetings of the Managers, preserve order, nominate committees, call special meetings, and in all equal divisions of the Board, give the casting vote. She shall furnish every new Manager with a book, containing in print the Constitution, the rules for the regulation of the Board, the duties of the Managers, and the rules for the government of the Asylum. When a Manager resigns her seat at the Board, she is to return this book to the First Directress, who will make it over to her successor.

In the absence of the First Directress, the Second shall preside; and if both be absent, a person shall be chosen from among the members present, to preside at the meeting.

The Recording Secretary shall summon the meetings of the Managers, keep a fair and correct record of all their proceedings, a register of the inmates of the Asylum, and do all other writing not connected with the office of the Treasurer, or the business of committees.

The Treasurer shall hold the evidences of property belonging to the Society; receive all moneys, and deposit the same at a bank, in her name, as Treasurer; make payments agreeably to the orders of Managers; keep a fair account of all receipts and expenditures, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Managers. She shall furnish a monthly abstract of her receipts and expenditures, and of the balance remaining in her hands, and prepare a statement to be laid before the Society at their annual meeting.

The Managers shall be divided into committees of two, who, in weekly rotation, shall superintend the Asylum, under the name of the "Visiting Committee."

The Visiting Committee shall visit the Asylum not less than twice during their week; they shall endeavor to be present once at each meal; shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates; generally direct the concerns of the family; and report their observations in the minute book—which book, on the last day of their week, is to be sent to the succeeding committee; for which purpose a list of the committees is to be kept in the book.

The Purchasing Committee shall make all purchases necessary for the family, pay all bills, and present a monthly account of their proceedings to the Board.

The Committee for Receiving Applications.—It shall be the duty of this Committee to receive applications, to visit the applicants, inquire into their character and circumstances, and make their report thereon to the Board, in writing. It shall also be the duty of this committee to keep a register of the names of the applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, and their place of residence. It will be likewise required that they keep a book, in which the terms of agreement entered into between the committee and the friends of the applicant, be inserted, with the signatures annexed. No person will be admitted into the Institution without an order from the committee.

Church Committee.—A committee of twelve members of the Board of Managers shall be appointed to see that the Asylum is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel; and have a general superintendence of this important concern. Any minister, properly authorised as a preacher of the Gospel, by an evangelical denomination of Christians, shall be cordially received, and none other will be admitted. The whole duty of supplying the Asylum with the preaching of the Gospel, to devolve on this committee, which they will be expected carefully and conscientiously to discharge; and the other members of the Board of Managers will be required to communicate with this committee, and obtain their consent, previous to introducing any one into the Asylum as a religious instructor. The Committee shall, as far as practicable, have the Asylum supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath. The committee shall make such regulations as may appear to them proper and regular, with respect to prayer meetings, or any other religious meetings, from time to time. The committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject, in the absence of the committee. The committee to keep a register of applications, with the decision of the Board in each case.

Each Manager will be furnished, by the Recording Secretary, with a list of subscribers, whose contributions she will be expected annually to collect.

The duties of the Managers appear to be generally comprised in the foregoing rules; in addition to which, it shall be considered the duty of the Visiting Committees at the Asylum, during their stated periods of attendance, not only to inquire into the temporal welfare of its inmates, but to visit them in their several rooms, and endeavor to ascertain their spiritual state, giving them such advice and instruction as may be in their power, and the circumstances of the case may render necessary.
